AP English Language is a college-level course designed for the advanced high school student. Students can, by excellent performance on the National AP Exam, obtain college credit and/or advanced placement in college composition. This course contains intense reading and analysis of essays, fiction, and non-fiction. The design of the class will be to provide a stimulating, broad literature base; refine collegiate essay-writing skills; and, prepare students for the National AP Exam in May. The only cost for this option would be the $9 fee for the exam.

IVY TECH – 9 credit hours. Students have the opportunity to earn nine credit hours of English through Ivy Tech Community College by taking AP English Literature in Grade 11 and by taking AP English Language in Grade 12. In order to earn the 9 credit hours students must complete BOTH courses. (FREE)

ENG 111 – English Composition – 3 credit hours (AP Literature 11)

ENG 112 – Exposition & Persuasion – 3 credit hours (AP Language 12)

ENG 206 – Introduction to Literature – 3 credit hours (AP Language 12)

ENG 101 – Rhetoric & Composition - USI – 3 credit hours (2nd Semester).

Students who are enrolled in AP English Language may enroll in a 3 credit hour course from USI in the second semester. This credit would count the same as the English 111 credit from Ivy Tech; however, some students may wish to take this course in order to get credit from USI. The cost is $75 for this course and enrollment would take place in late fall.
